

Ming Chuan University Procedures for Appointing Honorary Invited Professors

Revised and passed at the Administrative Council Meeting on June 15, 2015

- Article 1. In order to honor the scholars or elites in the society who have tremendous contributions to the areas of academic research, professional accomplishment, international exchange and university affairs development, as well as support MCU education philosophy and mission, these procedures were implemented to appoint honorary invited professors to assist MCU in improving academic research and reputation.
- Article 2. Honorary invited professors must meet one of the following requirements:
1. Have been appointed as invited professors in the past and contributed greatly to MCU university affairs development and planning.
  2. Have tremendous contribution to or high reputation in their respective areas of academic research or professional accomplishment.
  3. Well-known domestic and international scholars, pundits and elites in the society who have tremendous contributions to MCU in the area of university affairs development.
- Article 3. The honorary invited professor nomination procedure is conducted by MCU academic deans to select and recommend honorary invited professor nominees to the review board assembled by the university president. The nominees will be appointed as honorary invited professors after a thorough evaluation by the review board has been conducted and approved. The evaluation process will take place once every two years.
- Article 4. Honorary invited professor is a non-paid position and the individual may totally waive teaching hours.
- Article 5. Upon being passed at the Administrative Council Meeting and approved by the president, these procedures were implemented.

**In the event of any inconsistency or discrepancy between the Chinese and other language versions of this document, the Chinese version shall prevail.****